star of the night

Spain is famous the world over for its nightlife, and the evening entertainment on offer in the region of Madrid is especially exciting.

The lifestyle and friendly outgoing character of Madrid's inhabitants is what puts the sparkle in the city's nightlife, and its fame arouses the curiosity of most visitors to the capital and entices them to sample its delights. Every visitor keeps wonderful memories of the lively atmosphere and infectious high spirits of nights in Madrid.

Madrid offers a type of nightlife to suit every age, inclination and character. Whether you feel like dining out, catching a musical show, clubbing, enjoying a drink at an outdoor terrace, listening to a live concert, dancing until dawn in any of the spectacular discos, or going to one of the macro-events and musical festivals scheduled in summer, you will find there is something for everyone.

The venues may be historic, in the typical style of old Madrid, exclusive, or avant-garde – all form part of the visitor's experience of the city. The many restaurants, clubs and discos which liven up Madrid's nightlife include Joy Eslava, Ananda, Pacha Madrid, Moby Dick, Déjate Besar, Ramses, Tula, Cats, Silk, Areia, Samarkanda and 69 Pétalos.

These are the real stars of the night. They're shining for you.
